PREFACE TO THE SECOND PORTION.

The dispersion of the books forming the first portion of the Great Sunderland Library—great in traditional renown, in literary importance, in extent, still more in the extraordinary prices realized—revealed half-hidden treasures, the value of which, while they lay unnoticed and in part unknown on the library shelves, was certainly unsuspected if not quite ignored. Though perhaps not so profuse in its riches—the Sale Catalogue must be unique which includes in it a large series of the rarest Bibles and the most important editions of Boccaccio—the second portion will yet be found to contain books of immense interest, to the chief of which we here desire to draw attention. Passing over some minor rarities, which are yet of considerable value, we notice the four rare editions of the "Faictes Dictes et Balades" of Alain Chartier, chief among which is the edition of Le Caron (s. d.) generally regarded as the first, though Brunet considers it posterior to that of 1489. Next comes a remarkable series of Chronicles—Latin, French, Spanish, Portuguese, and Limousin; the posts of importance being occupied by the first edition of the "Chroniques de S. Denys," the first French book printed at Paris with a date—of which unfortunately we have only the first volume—the perfect and beautiful copy of Verard's edition of the same book printed in 1493; and the first edition of the "Chroniques de Normendie," printed at Rouen by Guillaume Tailleur in May, 1487. Immediately following these gems, come two extraordinarily rare Editions of Chronicles, which we believe have hitherto been undescribed by Bibliographers. We refer first to the "Chronica del Rey don Rodrigo," printed in "Hispali" by Lazaro de Gayanis in 1499. We believe that though an earlier edition has been admitted to exist, that of Cromberger, printed in Seville in 1511, is the most ancient known up to the present time. We may, probably, therefore look upon this of L. de Gayanis as the first edition, and consider it unique until its discovery effects the production of other copies, if such are in existence. The other hitherto undescribed edition to which we refer is the "Coronica del noble Cavallero Guarino Mesquino," printed in Seville by Juan Varela, March 15, 1527. It is perhaps the first edition of the Spanish translation of this famous Italian Chronicle, unless indeed the citation of an edition of Seville, 1512, in the Colombine Library Catalogue be correct. The next thing to be regarded with wonder in connection with the second portion of this Catalogue is the exhaustive number of the editions of CICERO'S WORKS. This series includes, perhaps without exception, every edition either of the collected or separate works published up to the end of the reign of George I.—the time when the Sunderland Library was practically completed. Of the COLLECTED WORKS we have no less than twenty-seven editions, beginning with the first (1498-9) and ending with that of Gronovius in 1692. These of course, include the editions of the Junti, the Stephans's, the Aldi, S. Colin, Hervagius, Gryphius, and others. Of the SEPARATE WORKS the editions are too numerous to detail; the most important fact being that there are EDITIONES PRINCIPES of the RHETORICA, DE ORATORE, OPERA PHILOSOPHICA, TUSCULANÆ QUESTIONES, DE OFFICIIS, etc. by Fust and Schoiffer, 1465 (also the second edition by the same printers), EPISTOLÆ AD FAMILIARES, EPISTOLÆ AD BRUTUM, etc. besides various other important early editions by the great 15th Century printers.

A passing notice may be given to the ILLUSTRATED CLARENDON'S HISTORY, which contains 360 portraits many of them drawings copied in sepia from celebrated originals. This is followed by a series of RARE ITALIAN PLAYS; and further on by several editions of the MEMOIRES of COMMINES beginning with the exceedingly rare first edition printed for Galliot du Pré in 1524; (with which is bound the first edition of the "SCANDALOUS CHRONICLE"), and ending with the translation in Spanish of Don Juan Vitrian in 1643.

The MANUSCRIPTS which occur in this portion are the following:—The Opuscula of SS. CHRYSOSTOM, GREGORY of ANTIOCH and GREGORY of NAZIANZEN, Cent. XIII; A PALIMPSEST CODEX containing an uncial MS. of the Gospels of the 8th Cent.; the works of EPHRAEM SYRUS, in Greek, Cent. XIII. and two Greek Service books of the 13th and 14th Centuries respectively.

The collection of COUNCILS calls for special notice, that of the Royal Collection in thirty-seven volumes being a very fine copy in morocco with the Arms of Louis XIV.

The interest attaching to the editions of Boccaccio in the first portion, will here be transferred to the numerous EXCEEDINGLY RARE EDITIONS of DANTE. And chief in importance is a most valuable MANUSCRIPT of the INFERNO, with an elaborate Latin Commentary by GUIDO of PISA, probably written in the commencement of the 15th Century. By an error—for which the Original Library Catalogue is responsible—this fine MS. is stated in the preface to the first portion to be written on vellum. It is, however, written on stout and glossy paper, and will be found correctly described in the Sale Catalogue. As to the printed editions, we have the excessively rare first edition of Numeister 1472; those of Francisco del Tuppo, 1475 ?; Vindelin de Spira 1477; Lud. et Alb. Pedemontani 1478; Nic. de Todescho 1481; B. de Boninis 1487; etc.; and in the 16th Century the editions of Aldus, Giunta, and other Italian, and also French Printers, with some rare translations.

As an equivalent to the fine volume in the first portion, which contained the two gems:—Boccaccio's Noble Women and the Romaunt de la Rose—there will be found in the present Catalogue a volume containing the first editions of the "DIALOGUS CREATURARUM MORALIZATUS;" and the "GESTA ROMANORUM," both printed in Gouda by Gerard Leeuw in 1480. Passing over some lesser lights we come to the fine series of the works of SIR WILLIAM DUGDALE, in the original editions—the MONASTICON; second edition of "ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL;" and the "BARONAGE OF ENGLAND," being on large paper.

One of the most important features in this portion is certainly the extensive series of BOOKS AND TRACTS RELATING TO FRENCH AFFAIRS. These comprise upwards of 500 Lots in the Sale Catalogue. They extend over a period of a hundred years,—from 1563 to 1663,—and consist of satires in prose and verse, accounts of battles, sieges, marriages, coronations, remarkable appearances in the heavens, earthquakes, pestilences, local occurrences, political and national events; including a large number relating to the religious controversies of the times, so rich in startling and important theological changes. Many of these were surreptitiously printed, and must be, from their ephemeral nature, either unique, or of very great rarity. There is also a goodly number of Classic French Poetical books and tracts, in original or rare editions.

There also occur EDITIONES PRINCIPES of the following Authors and Books:—Chrysostom, Claudian, Clarendon, Clemens Alexandrinus, Clementis V, Constitutiones, Codrus, Columna, Comestor, Corio, Quintus Curtius, Cyprian, Cyrillus Hieros., Demosthenis Orationes cum Ulpiani commentariolis, Dictys Cretensis, Dio Cassius, Dio Chrysostomus, Diodorus Siculus, Diogenes Cynicus, Diogenes Laertius, Diomedes Grammaticus, Dionysius Halicarnasseus, Dioscorides, Durandi Rationale, Quintus Ennius, Etymologicon Magnum Græcum, Euclides, Euripides, Eusebius, Eutropius, Ficinus, Firmicus Maternus, Frontinus, Fulgentius, Galenus, Gaza, Aulus Gellius, Georgius Trapezuntius, etc. etc.

In Books printed on vellum the sale of which in the first portion excited the greatest enthusiasm—reaching the sensational in the now celebrated copies of Augustine's City of God, printed by Nicolas Jenson in 1475, and the Fust & Schoiffer Bible, 1462, which sold for the high sums of £1000 and £1600 respectively—this portion is not less rich, for it contains the Rhetorica of Cicero, printed by Jenson in 1470; the Aldine Rhetorica; the Aldine de Oratore; the first volume of the Aldine Orationes; the Tusculanæ Quæstiones by Jenson 1472—a very beautiful copy—the first and second editions of the De Officiis et Paradoxa, by Fust and Schoiffer; the De Officiis, by Peter Vidou; the Epistolæ ad Familiares of John of Spira 1469; the Lyons counterfeit of the Aldine edition of the same epistles; the first and second editions of the Constitutions of Pope Clement V., by Fust and Schoiffer 1460-1467; the Cyclica theoria of Cleomedes, Paris. C. Neobarius 1539; the Rationale Divinorum of Durandus, Fust and Schoiffer 1459—the third book printed with a date—; the Lugdunense Somnium of Leo X. 1513; and last, but by no means least the editio princeps of Aulus Gellius, Romæ 1469—perhaps the most beautiful book in the sale.

In summing up the remaining items of importance we may note some rare works relating to America; some fine bindings with Arms of former owners, including one or two of Grolier, Maioli, and Laurini, the famous binders and collectors, whose names are dear—in more senses than one—to modern bibliophilists; a few rare English works by Chauncy, Drayton, Drummond, Daniel and others; and the many hundred uncommon foreign early-printed tracts some of which are of great interest.

Upon the whole there can be no doubt that the second portion of this famous Library will rather add to than detract from the interest taken by the literary world in the sale of the first portion.

This is the rare second edition of the Chronicle known as LIGNAMINE's. It contains 76 ll. printed in semi-gothic type, without marks, having 30 lines to a full page. An account of the invention of printing will be found under the reign of Pope Pius II. At the end of the vol. is bound a work in 35 leaves, without title, date, place, and name of printer (but printed with the same types as the Chronicon), beginning "Angelus Tephernas amplissimo domino Baptiste de Ursinis camere apostolice clerico." It consists chiefly of summaries of the lives of the Roman consuls.

This is the second edition of this Chronicle from Ratdolt's Venetian press; the first having been issued in the previous year. It is beautifully printed in small Gothic type, in long lines, without signatures or catchwords, but having the leaves numbered in Arabic numerals 1-64. This copy is beautifully clean, but a few leaves are slightly wormed; and it wants the 7 ll. of table.

2796 Chronicon. LIBER CRONICARUM CUM FIGURIS ET IMAGINIBUS AB INICIO MUNDI, (AUCTORE HARTMANN SCHEDEL) lit. goth. vellum large fol. hunc librum Ant. Coberger impressit (Nurembergæ) mensis Julii 1493

Contains Register with title 20 ll.; numb. fols. ccc. (the last not numbered); fols. 259, 260 and 261, are blank, left so purposely for MS. annotations. Between fols. 266 and 267 are 6 ll. unnumb. (the last blank) containing "de Sarmacia" etc.; the verso and recto of the two last leaves form a large map, lower margins water-stained.

This is the first volume (of three) of the EXCESSIVELY RARE and precious FIRST EDITION of these Chronicles; and the FIRST FRENCH BOOK PRINTED at PARIS with a DATE. The text is printed in gothic letter in double columns without numerals, catchwords, or signatures, having 40 lines to a full page. It contains 295 ll. commencing with a prologue occupying 1 leaf; followed by a table of chapters 1 leaf. The initials of the prologue and chap. i are illuminated, and all the capitals are painted in blue and red. A few ll. are wormed; but it is a large and clean copy, measuring 12½ × 9 in. The date is not given in this volume.

2802 Chronicon. CHRONIQUES de FRANCE (appelées de S. Denys) nouvellement imprimez a Paris, 3 vols. in 2, old red morocco gilt, gilt edges fol. imprime a Paris (par J. Maurand) pour ANTHOINE VERARD lan mcccc quatre vingtz et xiii dernier jour daoust

A MAGNIFICENT COPY of this beautiful edition of Verard, printed in gothic letter, in double columns, having 47 lines to a full page, and containing numerous fine large and small woodcuts. The collation is as follows,

Vol. I—title, dedication to Charles VIII. and table 8 ll. forming Sig. A, the last l. blank. Text numb. fols. i-cclxxiiij; but the last is erroneously numbered cclxxiii; and between folios lxxviii and lxxix occur 3 extra leaves numb. lxxiii, lxxvii and lxxviii. Signs. a-ꝯ and A-M in eights, the last 4 leaves of M being blank; the total number of leaves including blank ones being 288.

Vol. 2; title and table 10 ll. Sigs. AA6 and BB4 the last leaf blank. Text; the last fol. is numb. cclxxiv, but the pagination skips from clxxvi to clxxxi. The signs. are A-T, VV, V, and X; followed by a new sig. AA-MM6 all in eights, the total number of leaves in vol. 2 being 280.

Vol. 3; title and table 8 ll. Sig. AA; text fols. i-cclvii. Signs. AAA-XXX, BBB, AAAA-MMMM in eights (BBB, LLLL and MMMM in sixes; the last leaf blank), the total numb. of ll. in vol. 3 being 264. Signature BBB appears to want ll. 1 and 8, and the corresponding numerals 9 and 16 are missing; but there is no break in the sense, and the omission occurs in all copies.

Excepting the first four leaves in vol. 1, which are slightly wormed, the present copy is in every way remarkable, it being QUITE PERFECT, clean throughout, the leaves perfectly sound, and the woodcuts brilliant. The initials are painted in green and red. So fine and perfect a copy is of great rarity, and POTIER'S copy sold in 1870 for 8050 fr. The vols. bear in many places the name of "F. PEYRANT Sr. de St. Germain, Conseillier Secrete de la Chambre du Roy."

2803 Chronicon. CRONIQUES de FRANCE ABREGEES, avec la generation dadam et deve et de noe et de leurs generations et les villes et cites que fonderent ceulx qui yssirent deulx, lit. goth. with numerous spirited woodcuts (slightly wormed), vellum sm. 4to. Imprime a Paris le xxvi jour du moys de Mars par JEHAN TREPERET (sic) 1494

A VERY RARE EDITION OF THIS ABRIDGEMENT. It contains 92 leaves not numb.; signs a-m, a, c, d, f, g and m in sixes and the rest in eights: m8 consists of the device of the printer only, the device being on the title also.

2804 Chronicon. LES CRONICQUES de NORMENDIE, lit. goth. sm. fol. Rouen par GUILL. LE TALLEUR, au moys de May 1487

ORIGINAL EDITION of this CHRONICLE and of VERY GREAT RARITY. As is well known, there were two editions issued in the same month of 1487, one by Noël de Harsy and that by Le Talleur. It is, perhaps, impossible to decide which was issued first, the edition of de Harsy bearing the date of the 14th of May, while that of Le Talleur simply has the month, without specifying the day. This edition is printed in double columns, with numerals and signatures, having 39 lines to a full page. The title consists of the words as above with the device of Le Talleur beneath. The imprint is contained in the second column on the reverse of title as follows: "Je Guillaume le Talleur natif et demourant a la paroisse Sainct Lo a Rouen voulant de mon pouoir reduire en memoire les cronicques de Normendie . . . jay voulu imprimer les dictes cronicques en mon hostel a rouen. Lesquelles ont este accomplies au moys de may mil cccc quatre vingtz et sept." The volume contains 6 ll. for title and table (sig. A); on the reverse of A6 a large woodcut. The text is numbered Feuillet i-cxii, but F. cii is skipped though the sign. is correct. The signs. for the text are a-o7 in eights. Between signs. I and m comes a signature mm, 6 ll., beginning "Cy aprez ensuit ung petit traictie le quelle parle de la guerre continuee entre francois et englois," etc. This sheet has two leaves less than Brunet's description indicates, but it contains all mentioned in the table at the beginning of the first page, and the signature is complete. The present copy is an excellent one, and quite perfect, with the exception of the title which has a small hole in the plain part, and the two plain corners torn off. It is ruled throughout in red lines and bound in old red morocco, gilt edges, size $10\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$.

2805 Chronicon. La Chronica del illust. Principe Don Enrique quarto deste nombre, y muy poderoso Rey de Castilla y de Leon, Spanish manuscript (unpublished?) of the 17*th Century, legibly written on* 313 ll., bound in vellum fol.

2806 Chronicon. CRONICA del REY DON RODRIGO, lít. goth. old calf fol. s. l. (Hispali) por Lazaro de Gayanis y compañeros 1499

The most ancient edition of this famous Chronicle and hitherto quite undescribed by Bibliographers. Although the existence of an edition anterior to that of Cromberger, Seville 1511 is admitted, we believe this to be the only copy known in Europe. The work is printed in large Gothic letters in double columns, having 47 lines to a full page. It is divided into 2 parts. The title of part 1 consists of the words "CRONICA DEL REY DON RODRIGO" in large Gothic letters, beneath a woodcut figure of the king crowned and enthroned. It contains 128 ll. including title, the last leaf erroneously marked cxxvii. A blank leaf follows; and then the table, consisting of 8 ll. sign. +. The signs. are a-q in eights, g having 9 ll. The imprint is on the recto of the last leaf of table, and reads as follows: "Este presente libro fue acabado a xxiii dias del mes de Mayo del ano mill quatro cientos y noventa y nueve. E empremido por mandado del honrrado Senor Lazaro Gayanis y Companeros." Part 2 commences on fol. 1 as follows: "Aqui comiença la segunda destruycion de Espana que fue despues del vencimiēto del rey don Rodrigo." This part contains xc numbered ll. and ends with the words "DEO GRACIAS." It is a perfect and most excellent copy.

2807 Chronicon. Cronica del muy efforçado cavallero el Cid Ruy Diaz Campeador, lít. goth. woodcut equestrian figure of the Cid on title, vellum sm. 4to. fue impresso en Salamanca por Juan de Junta florentino a doze de Março 1546

A fine and perfect copy of this rare edition. Contains 50 ll. including title; signs. a-f10 in eights.

2808 Chronicon. Chronica del Famoso Cavallero Cid Ruy Diez Campeador (22 prel. ll. (including title) and pp. 317), vellum fol. en Burgos P. de Junta y Juan Bapt. Varesio 1593

The earliest edition known of this Chronicle, though an earlier one (not yet discovered) has been cited by Antonio. Contains clxxxvi numb. ll. including title, which is loose. It is a good copy; but the margins of the first four leaves are slightly wormed.

2810 Chronicon. Chronica de los Reyes Don Ferdinando y Dona Ysabel, lít. goth. woodcuts, vellum fol. en Caragoça en casa de Juan Millan 1567

A rare edition of this Chronicle, but imperfect. Contains ccxlviii numb. ll. and 4 leaves of table. Wants title; 8 ll. and a part of a ninth supplied in MS.; sold not subject to return.

2811 Chronicon. Otro edicion, Roman letter, vellum sm. fol. (s. a. y l.)

These rare editions are described by Dibdin in Bib. Spencer. I, 378-9. Both works are evidently printed with the same types, and the paper seems of the same age, though that used for the Topica has water lines while in the other they are absent. They are both printed in a Roman type without marks, the Topica having 25 lines to a full page and the Partitiones 26. The Topica has 20 ll. followed by a blank leaf. The Partitiones has 27 ll. having on the recto of the last leaf the above date and the following "Ecce finis partitionum oratoriarum; quas Gabriel fontana placentinus non indiligenter recognovit." Measures 9½ × 6½ in. This very rare edition from the press of the great printers contains the first edition of the text of the Brutus. It is finely printed in Roman letter on stout paper. The first treatise contains 109 ll. and the Brutus 78; the first page of each of the works is beautifully illuminated in gold and colours, and the initials are painted. It is a very fine copy, measuring 11⅛ × 7¾ in., bound in old yellow morocco gilt.

2923 Cicero. De Oratore ad Quintum Fratrem, bound in old red morocco gilt 4to. absque ulla nota

A very rare edition containing 108 ll. printed in a Roman character, without marks of any kind, having 32 lines to a full page. It is confidently attributed to Vindelin of Spira 1470 by Dibdin Bib. Spenc. I, 336, the type being similar to that used by him for his edition of the Offices in 1470. 2947 Cicero. Orationes, old red morocco gilt, yellow edges
fol. impressum Venetiis per Christopherum Valdarfer 1471

This exceedingly rare and fine edition of the Orations by Valdarfer, disputes the place of priority with that of Sweynheym and Pannarts, issued in Rome in the same year. The vol. commences with the table, which occupies 1 leaf, and the text begins on the recto of the following. The vol. contains 277 ll. one of which, occurring in the centre, is blank. Both Dibdin and Brunet are in error in giving 275 only as the number of leaves. There are neither numerals, catchwords nor signatures; a full page contains 40 lines. The initials are painted in blue and red; the first initial is cut out and the lower margin has been mended; 6 ll. are slightly wormed; but the condition of the rest of the book is perfect. Measures 12⅝ × 8¼.

2948 Cicero. Orationes, old crimson morocco gilt

3083 Cicero. EPISTOLÆ AD FAMILIARES, bound in old crimson morocco, yellow edges fol. ROMÆ SWEYNHEYM ET PANNARTZ 1467

EDITIO PRINCEPS. THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN ROME and in ROMAN LETTERS, and the first production of the press of these famous printers. Only 275 copies were printed and its rarity is such, that the Abbé Laire (quoted by Dibdin) declares a copy if sold by auction would produce its weight in gold. No words can describe the beauty of this present copy. It is absolutely perfect in every particular; as clean, almost, and brilliant, as when first issued. The copy Dibdin describes Bib. Spenc. 1, 318 must have wanted 2 ll. since he gives it the number of 244 only instead of 246 which this copy has. The large initials are ornamented and the small ones painted in blue and red; and the head titles to the epistles are neatly written in red ink.

The size of the form is 7 in. precisely, and the size of the whole page in this copy is rather over 11 × 7½ in.

3084 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old crimson morocco gilt fol. Romæ SWEYNHEYM ET PANNARTZ (nonas Novemb.) 1469

The second edition by these printers, of which the same number was issued as of the preceding. It is printed in a much larger form than the first edition, and contains 161 ll. This is a tall and clean copy, the first page elaborately painted in floreate scrolls and illuminated. It measures rather over 13 × 9⅛ in. Some ll. are very slightly wormed.

3085 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old crimson morocco gilt
fol. Venet. JOANNES DE SPIRA 1469

PRINTED UPON VELLUM; of which sort not more than 6 copies are extant. As is well known it is the FIRST PRODUCTION of the VENETIAN PRESS, and the first work with JOHN of SPIRA's name. Two different editions of this book were published by this printer in 1469. We give the colophon of this impression below:

Primus in Adriaca formis impressit ænis
Urbe libros Spira genitus de stirpe Johannes
In reliquis sit quanta vides spes lector habenda
Quom labor hic primus calami superaverit artem.

This edition contains 125 ll.; and this copy has besides 2 blank ll. The first page and the initials are richly painted and illuminated; a few ll. are slightly stained and wormed; and the plain margins of the first five and last three leaves are mended. Size nearly 12 × 8½ in.

fol. Venet. JOHANNES DE SPIRA 1469

This is the second edition of the Epistolæ by John of Spira. From the colophon, which we give below, it would appear that the printer only worked off 300 copies of each edition; and this is of equal rarity with the first. This copy contains 134 ll. only; according to Dibdin, Hain and Brunet there should be 135; but we have collated this copy with the above and find it quite perfect, and they probably reckoned the first leaf which is blank. The first page is RICHLY PAINTED and ILLUMINATED; as are also all the initials. The headings of the Epistles are written in blue and red. Size 12⅞ × 8⅞ in. The colophon reads as follows:

Hesperiæ quondam Germanus quosque libellos
Abstulit; en plures ipse daturus ad est.
Nanqz vir ingenio mirandus et arte Joannes
Exscribi docuit clarius ere libros
Spira favet Venetis; quarto nam mense peregit
Hoc tercentenum bis Ciceronis opus M.CCCCLXVIIII.

3087 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old russia gilt fol.
FULGINEI EMILIANUS DE ORFINIS ET JOAN. NUMEISTER (circa 1470-72)

A VERY RARE EDITION, printed with the same types used by Numeister for his edition of Dante in 1472. It contains 243 ll. (not 242 as Dibdin says) having 29 lines to a page, without marks. From the colophon on the last leaf it will be seen that only 200 copies of this work were printed:—

Emilianus auctor fulginas; & fratres una
Ignenio (sic for ingenio) prestante viri. Numeister & auctor
Johannes almannus recte qui plura peregit
Tulli ducenta nuper pressere volumina recte
Que viserat probus episcopus aleriensis
Fulginei acta vides et caribus Emiliani.

3088 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old crimson morocco gilt
fol. Venetiis a NICOLAO JENSON Gallico impressum 1471

A fine copy of this rare edition. Contains 203 ll. Measures 11⅛ × 7½ in.

3089 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, vellum
fol. s. l. et nom. imp. [Venet. VIND. DE SPIRA] 1471

This rare edition is printed with the same characters as those used by Vind. de Spira for his edition of Cicero's Offices 1470. It contains 135 ll. having 41 lines to a full page. It finishes on the reverse of the "Epistola ad Tironum" with the date MCCCCLXXI. only; a few leaves are slightly stained and wormed; but it is a large copy. Measures 13 × 9⅛ in.

fol. s. l. et nom. imp. [ANT. ZAROTUS MEDIOLAN.] 1471

Brunet considers this edition to have been printed with the same characters as those used in the same printer's edition (without name) of 1476. This contains 146 ll. and has 39 and 40 lines to a full page. The first page and the initials are illuminated. Inserted are two ll. of an ancient musical MS. The colophon is as follows:—

Tullius ingenua præfulgens mente solebat
Has Cicero clais mittere patriciis
Marco respondent multa quos arte notarat
Eloquium priscis summo in honore fuit.
MCCCCLXXI.

3091 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old calf, with the Marlborough Arms on sides fol. absque ulla nota

This edition is printed in Gothic letters on 146 ll. having 37 lines to a full page. It finishes on the reverse of leaf 146 with the same four lines as in the preceding edition.

3092 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, vellum
fol. Romæ Sweynheym et Pannarts 1472 die v. Septembris

This is the third edition issued by Sweynheym and Pannarts. Contains 161 ll. having 38 lines to a page. Size 12¾ × 8¾. An excellent copy.

3093 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old blue morocco, with gilt ornamental borders fol. Mediol. per Philippum Lavagnia 1472, viii. kl. Apriles

A large and remarkably clean copy of this rare edition. It is interesting for the notice by Lavagnia of the numerous editions of the Epistles, in which he says he had printed 300 copies of this, and submitted each page to the correction of learned men. It contains 216 ll. having 39 lines to a full page. This copy is hardly cut. It measures 11⅛ × 7⅞.

3094 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old crimson morocco, with ornamental gilt borders sm. fol. s. l. [Venet.] a Nicolao Jenson Gallico viventibus, necnon et posteris impressum fœliciter finit 1475

Contains 196 ll., leaf 1 defective.

3095 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old blue morocco with ornamental gilt borders fol. [s. l. et nomine impressoris] MCCCCLXXV.

A rare edition, attributed by Dibdin to a Venetian press. It contains 177 ll. having 34 lines to a full page. There are some clumsy and irregular signatures from b to y, which Dibdin thought peculiar to the Althorp copy; but as they occur in this also and Hain distinctly mentions them, they must evidently be the work of the original printer. On the side margins of the title is printed in a different type to the book the following:—"Conv. S. M. lacrimose | Carm. Disc. Bononiæ." Size 11⅝ × 7⅞.

3096 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old blue morocco gilt, with broad gilt ornamental borders, and gilt tooled centre ornaments fol. impressum Mediolani per Ant. Zarothum (octavo kl. decemb.) 1476

A rare edition; Brunet speaks only of an edition of 1476 by Zarotus but without his name. It contains 138 ll., 41 lines to a page. Signatures a-r. The present is a capital copy, and measures 12¾ × 9⅛.

3097 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares, old crimson morocco, with ornamental gilt borders sm. fol. impressum Mediolani per Philippum Lavagnium xiiii. kl. Apriles MCCCCLXXVII.

Contains 201 ll., 35 lines to a full page; signs. a-y. Size 11 × 7⅞.

3098 Cicero. Epistolæ ad Familiares (133 ll.), old calf
fol. Mediol. Leonardus (Pachel) et Uldericus (Scinzenzeler) teuthonici impresserunt 1479

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Only 275 copies printed. Bibliographers are not decided as to whether this edition or that of Jenson, printed in the same year (see next lot), is to be regarded as EDITIO PRINCEPS. Dibdin and Van Praet give only 198 as the number of ll. in this edition; Brunet and Hain make it 199; but this copy contains 203 ll. which we believe is the correct number. It is on the whole in excellent condition, with the large INITIALS ILLUMINATED, and the capitals painted; but a few ll. are somewhat wormed. Size 13¼ × 9¼ in. The Roxburghe copy sold for £189; resold in Sykes' sale £91.

ALL FINE LARGE COPIES OF ORIGINAL EDITIONS OF VERY RARE TRACTS. We can trace no record of the sale of a copy of the "Elegies sur les troubles d'Amboise," which is perhaps the rarest piece in the volume. The edition of the "Discours sur les Miseres" is that announced in the Supplement to Brunet by Deschamps as without the name of the author or the privilege, which is evidently an error, as this has both. The Sermon of the Bishop of Arras at the opening of the Douay University is also very rare and interesting.

The Dialogus Creaturarum is the MOST ANCIENT EDITION KNOWN of this CURIOUS WORK and of GREAT RARITY. It contains 102 ll. commencing with a preface and table, which occupy 9 ll. Then comes the text, the first page being surrounded by a woodcut border. It commences on Aij (Aj being a blank l. and wanting in this copy), and runs on to M6 in eights; the large device of the printer being on the recto of the last leaf. The work contains 123 woodcuts in simple outline. The present is a VERY FINE, LARGE, and PERFECT COPY (with the exception of the blank leaf), the initials printed in red, and the first initial ornamented. It measures 11⅛ × 8 in. The "GESTA ROMANORUM" is the FIRST EDITION WITH A DATE, and is also of a HIGH DEGREE of RARITY. It commences with the table, which occupies 9 ll. (Debure, Brunet, and Hain say 10 ll. but they probably reckoned a blank one, as the table is quite perfect). The text occupies 133 ll. Signs. a-r6, aj being blank (wanting in this copy); initials rubricated. A CLEAN and SOUND COPY, measuring 11⅛ × 8 in.

EXCESSIVELY RARE; THE MOST ANCIENT EDITION of this Romantic History of the great Warrior. It is printed in double columns, having 35 lines to a full page. It contains 88 ll. not numbered (signs. a-o in sixes a and o having 8 ll. each); aj consists of a full-length armed figure of the Warrior, with the words "Bertrand du Guesclin" above (the recto being blank); and this serves for the title. The text begins on the recto of aij with the words "en ma pensee souvent me delictoye en onze livres et cōpter les faiz des anciens parlesqlz. soubz la grace de nostre seigneur," etc. The reverse of a7 contains only the following colophon:—"Cy finist le livre des faiz de Messire Bertrand du Guesclin Chevalier, jadiz connestable de France et Seigneur de Longueville;" a8 is occupied with a repetition of the full-length figure without the name. Brunet supposes the typography to be of Lyonnese execution, and to have been produced after 1480. There are 27 woodcuts in the text, evidently designed by two different artists; the superiority of some over the others being manifest. The initials are left small for illumination. This is a sound and desirable copy; but there are a few old MS. notes in margins. Heber's copy produced £45; and the Yemeniz copy 3300 fr.

EDITIO PRINCEPS; PRINTED UPON VELLUM. This precious book as is well known is the third book printed with a date, it having been finished on the 6th of October 1459. It thus presents one of the earliest examples of the perfection to which the art of printing with movable types suddenly (apparently) attained. It contains 160 ll. printed in small gothic type in double columns, having 63 lines to a column. It commences without formal title with the following words (in red) "Incipit racōnale divinor. officior." finishing with the well-known colophon in red. The present copy is large, with many of the pinholes made in fixing the sheets to the press remaining (measures 16 × 11½ in.). The first initial is illuminated but the paint has been rubbed off; the others are ornamented and painted in blue and red. The condition of the leaves is, on the whole, excellent, but the first and last are stained badly, and 2 or 3 others slightly, and the vellum is somewhat shrivelled. One or two holes occurring in the vellum have been patched with small pieces and the words of the hiatuses printed in by the original printers.

A most beautiful copy of this editio princeps, PRINTED UPON VELLUM. Even upon paper this fine book is extremely rare, but we believe that only two copies on vellum are recorded, of which the present is one. It contains in all 200 ll. besides 3 blank ll. used for flyleaves. It commences with the epistle of the editor to Pope Paul II. which occupies 5 ll.; the text follows and has 180 ll. succeeded by a blank l.; the vol. finishing with the table of chapters occupying 14 ll. There are 19 painted and illuminated initial letters, and all the capitals are painted in blue and red. This edition is remarkable for the quantity of Greek type used; 1 leaf (2 pp.) being wholly occupied with it—the earliest instance we believe of such a leaf occurring. The head titles of the 19 books in this edition are uniformly omitted. The condition of this precious volume is in every way excellent; its only defect (if such it can be called) is that the first 5 ll. have a single wormhole running through them, but the holes thus made are not larger than might be caused by an ordinary pin. Measures 12⅜ × 9 in.

5416 Gellius. Noctes Atticæ, old red morocco fol. Romæ Sweynheym et Pannartz in domo Petri de Maximis 1472 die sexta Augusti

Second edition from the Roman press, and at least of equal rarity with the first. This edition was issued without the epistle of the editor. Brunet says that this is a reproduction line for line of the first edition; but a comparison of the two will show decided differences in the typographical arrangements. For instance, this edition has all the head titles to the books; some words which were printed in full in the first edition are contracted in this, and vice versâ. It contains 196 ll., 15 of which are occupied with the table of chapters. The first 14 ll. are wormed; but it is a large and generally sound copy. Measures 13¼ × 9 in.

5417 Gellius. Noctes Atticæ, old crimson morocco gilt fol. impress. Venetiis per Nicolaum Jenson 1472

It is a moot point with bibliographers as to the priority of this edition of Jenson, or the second Roman edition. This may not be so rare as the Roman, but the beauty of its typographical execution must always make its acquisition necessary to students of early typography. The beauty of this copy has been marred in appearance by having red lines run through all the capitals, but it is perfectly clean and sound. It contains 172 ll., 14 of which are occupied with a table of chapters. It measures 12¼ × 8¾ in.

5418 Gellius. Noctes Atticæ, old yellow morocco gilt sm. fol. Venetii per And. Jacobi Catherensem 1477

A rare edition, printed from different MSS. from those used for the three preceding editions. It contains 16 ll. for table; and signs. a-z in eights; a having 10 ll. (aj, blank, wanting), y and z 6 ll. each. Somewhat wormed and stained and 2 or 3 ll. mended.

5419 Gellius. Aliud exemplar, old leather binding sm. fol. A. Jacobi Catharens. 1477

A taller and in every way superior copy to the above; but the first and last ll. are mounted. Height 11⅞ in. being 1½ in.; taller than the former.

5419*Gellius. Noctes Atticæ, old yellow morocco gilt fol. Venet. per Joannem de Tridino 1496

Contains 10 ll. for table; and cxviii numb. ll.; several ll. much wormed.

5422 Gellius. Noctium Atticarum libri undeviginti (ex recens. J. B. Egnatii), ALDINE EDITION, TALL COPY, the anchors and initials illuminated in gold, old brown morocco, with gilt tooling
8vo. Venet. in ædibus Aldi 1515

JOHN GROLIER'S COPY, with his motto on the under side and the title of the book on the upper side. The name which was on the upper side has been erased; and one of the covers is warped and discoloured through exposure to damp. This is the first of the two Aldine editions under the same date. Contains 32 prel. ll.; 1 blank; 289 numb. ll.; and 51 ll. of table etc. The last two ll. contain MS. notes in a small hand perhaps by Grolier. Height hardly 6⅝ in.

This edition contains 16 prel. ll.; text 587 pp.; index 36 ll; Noctes Parisinæ etc. pp. 205; LUD. CARRIONIS NOTÆ in Auli Gelii Noctes pp. 120. These notes by Carrio are so rarely found in the vol. that Brunet declared neither he nor M. Renouard had ever seen a copy containing them.

Como impressa per Magistros Ambrosium de Orcho, et Dionysium de Paravisino, vid. Aug. 1474

A most rare and interesting book; being the first specimen of printing in the Italian town of Como. It is printed in gothic type for the ordinary letters, while a fount of very thin Roman type is used for the capitals—a style peculiar, so far as we know, to this book. It is in double columns, having 50 lines to each, without marks of any kind. It commences without title "Incipiunt Rubrice," occupying 16 ll.; the text begins on the recto of l. 17, headed "De Appellationibus" and occupies 176 ll. ending with 16 lines only on verso of the last. It is printed on coarse thick paper; the leaves of the table are wormed, and the plain margins of 4 ll. torn off; otherwise in excellent condition. Size $15\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{8}$ in.
